Mini-Workshop, Artist's Trading Cards May, 2013 meeting

"Grey Hood" -Brande Arno

Artist's Trading Cards are fun to make and an easy way to share your art. They are just a little bigger than your standard business card.

After we hold elections, we'll get started on making them. The blank trading cards will be provided by the group, you provide the inspiration.

Needed for members to bring are:

Watercolors and brushes. Gel pens, pencils, colored pencils and pens, stamps, magazine pictures, references and any small embellishments you'd like.

Trading your finished card with another artist member is optional.

We'd like to bring some of them to Positively Pittsford in June to sell.

June 6 for The Picnic!

Will you be there? We hope so!

Artist Spotlight—Lynn Wicks

Lynn Wickes attended The Fashion Institute of Technology and worked as a textile designer in New York City. In the late 1960's she joined Coty Award winners Will & Eileen Richardson, producing one of a kind fabrics for Halston and other fashion designers.

After moving to Rochester, she completed a Bachelor's Degree in Studio Arts and Art Therapy under the mentorship of artist Kurt Feuerherm at Empire State College.

During the early 70's she was instrumental in forming a support group for women artists, which focused on developing skills, and learning about the unique contributions of women in art history.

She participated in a number of art exhibits, taught drawing & was represented by the Hutchins Gallery. Her interest in art therapy led to a Master's in Social Work with postgraduate training in Family Therapy.

From the late 80's to 2003, her primary focus was directing several home based mental health programs in the community, teaching and maintaining a private psychotherapy practice.

In 2004, she was the recipient of Monroe County's Preventive Service Coalition's Pioneer Award for her leadership in outcome based services to families.

Ms Wickes returned to her personal artwork in 2007.

In 2008 her work was juried into The Fourth Northeast National Pastel Exhibition. In 2011, she received a Master Division Award in the Central Adirondack Art Exhibit in Old Forge, NY. Her work has been juried into Empire State's Alumni Shows, The Association of University Women's Art Forum Exhibits, Pittsford Art Group Annual Spring & Fall Shows, Steve Carpenter's Annual Student Art Show and the New York Figure Study Guild Show.

Her current work in the pastel medium explores landscapes, figurative works and portraits. She is a member of the Pittsford Art Group and New York Figure Study Guild and exhibits at various venues in the community.

"My goal is to evoke a mood and sense of place that is representative of the ways in which we are able to both capture and distort images that have personal and universal meaning". I have a strong commitment to drawing from life as a basis for mastering the skills needed to accomplish both abstract and representational work.
